Cook, Doolittle help with food collection

From Chronicle Staff Writer Susan Slusser

A's relievers Ryan Cook and Sean Doolittle will appear at the Bank of American Walnut Creek banking center on Thursday from 5 to 6 p.m. for a holiday food collection effort for the Food Bank of Contra Costa and Solano counties. The first 150 people who donate five non-perishable food items will receive autographed photo cards from both pitchers.

On Friday, Cook and Doolittle will attend the A's Community Fund holiday party, a private event at Oakland Zoo that the team holds for a local elementary school.
