

Times-Herald

SCC ceramic bowls made to raise awareness of local hunger

Times-Herald staff report/

POSTED: 03/02/2014 12:53:12 AM PST

Solano Community College ceramic students are creating bowls for a local food bank project entitled "Empty Bowls" designed to raise awareness about local hunger.

The handcrafted bowls will be used by the Food Bank of Contra Costa and Solano to rally more volunteers to raise awareness about hunger. Further, local restaurants will provide soup and those who attend food bank events will keep the bowls as reminders of empty bowls in need of food.

The hunger-awareness events take place 6 p.m. Sunday, March 16 at the Solano Food Bank Fairfield Warehouse, 2339 Courage Drive, Fairfield.

Tickets are $15 for individuals, $40 for families of four (all ages welcome).

For more information and online registration go to www.food bankccs.org/events.