Every September, during Hunger Action Month, we join Feeding America in their campaign to Turn Orange for Hunger Relief™. Orange is the official color of hunger relief and makes a bold statement to start the difficult conversation about hunger.

3 EASY WAYS TO TAKE ACTION

TURN ORANGE Wear orange every Thursday in September to help raise awareness.

DONATE at www.foodbankccs.org/hungeractionmonth and share your action! Or hold a food drive with your neighbors, at work or at your place of worship.

SHARE Turn your Facebook and Twitter profiles orange for the month and let everyone know you’re taking action! Share Turn Orange pics and actions you’ve taken with @FoodBankCCS and @FeedingAmerica via social media and use the hashtag #HungerAction.

Visit www.foodbankccs.org/HungerActionMonth to take action!

- Ways to help during the holidays
Working to end child hunger

When I began working at the Food Bank in 1976, I asked my supervisor if I could take a few days off during the holiday season. In a very nice way I was told I could take time off after the Christmas holiday, but there was no way in the world I could take time off before. That was my first lesson that the holiday season is the busiest time of the year for the Food Bank. Through the years, I have seen many busy holidays filled with an outpouring of community support.

Starting in August, we begin working with our partner agencies to determine what food they will need from the Food Bank over the holidays. We start organizing the hundreds of food drives that bring in over a million pounds of food from our community. We also work with television and radio partners during the holidays to get the message out to the community about how they can help. Ultimately, the work of the Food Bank is possible because we are part of a caring community. The support we receive, be it financial support, food donations or volunteer time during the holidays, allows us to make a difference in the lives of those in need all year long.

Your Holiday Gifts Keep Giving

As summer ends, the Food Bank begins to prepare for our busiest time of year – the holiday season.

With many ways to support the Food Bank from cookie sales and hot cocoa booths to office food drives, the gifts we receive during the holidays allow us to provide service all year long.

Here are some fun and festive ways you can add the Food Bank to your holiday traditions.

Host a Food Drive
Help provide nonperishable food to support our programs and partner agencies. We take care of the heavy lifting; you just have to let us know where to send the collection barrel!

Buy A Bag
We provide you with small, colorful paper grocery bags or paper holiday ornaments for a festive fundraiser at your business, school or place of worship. As your friends and coworkers donate, a Buy A Bag is displayed in their honor on a wall, window, counter or anywhere!

Donate Funds
Donations of funds are critically important to our work. Through the end of the year, note “Friends of the 40th” and your gift will be doubled!

Because of your gift, Angel was able to spend last Thanksgiving with family and "lots of food!"

Your support helps families like Lisa and Angel. Lisa is on dialysis and her social worker referred her to a Food Bank partner agency for help with groceries.

Last year Lisa attended her first distribution where she received a bag of groceries and a Thanksgiving turkey, thanks to donors like you. Her daughter, Angel, was looking forward to being with her whole family and "eating lots of food!" on Thanksgiving.

By donating during the holidays, you help to provide food to families like Lisa’s throughout the year.

Best Carrot Soup

Turn your plate orange for Hunger Action Month with this recipe for carrot soup by Haley Lindberg. For more delicious and budget-friendly recipes visit www.foodbankccs.org/recipes

Ingredients

12 large carrots, peeled, chopped
1 yellow or white onion, chopped
4 C. water or chicken broth
1 Tbsp. olive oil or butter
1 Tbsp. minced garlic
1 C. orange juice
1 Tbsp. ginger powder
Salt and Pepper

1. Melt butter/oil in saucepan; add onions and sauté until translucent (about 5 minutes).

2. Place chopped carrots, sautéed onions, garlic and water (or broth) in large pot. Bring to boil, then simmer until carrots are tender (about 30 minutes).

3. Add orange juice and stir off heat.

4. Blend in a blender in batches. If needed, add additional water/broth.

5. Add ginger powder, salt and pepper seasoning to taste.
