NBC BAY AREA TEAMS UP WITH SAFEWAY FOR “HELP US END HUNGER” FOOD DRIVE ON SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 21

SAN JOSE, CA – (November 2, 2015) – NBC Bay Area is once again teaming up with Safeway Stores for a one-day food drive on Saturday, November 21, a collaboration of seven food banks serving over 780,000 local residents each month. The “Help Us End Hunger” food drive will take place at 156 Safeway locations throughout the Bay Area, making it easy for community members to participate and help feed their neighbors in need.

“Despite the recovering economy, thousands of Bay Area residents still rely on their local food banks to put food on their tables each week. Our goal is to create awareness and provide our viewers an easy way to help out,” said Rich Cerussi, NBC Bay Area President and General Manager. “We thank the community for all of their support to make this drive so successful year after year.”

“We thank NBC Bay Area and Safeway for bringing attention to the severity of local hunger and for creating a simple way for anyone in our community to help a family in need,” said Kathy Jackson, Second Harvest Food Bank CEO. “Bay Area Food Banks are feeding people in every neighborhood and through this drive you can donate to make a difference in the lives of people where you live.”

For the last six years, NBC Bay Area has partnered with Safeway to help stock the shelves of local food banks. In addition to providing on-air promotion, the station will be enlisting hundreds of volunteers – including NBC Bay Area anchors and reporters helping at their own neighborhood Safeway Stores – on Saturday, November 21 to encourage shoppers to donate food items.

To make the donation process easier, a specially produced shopping bag filled with items that food banks need the most will be available for $10 at all local Safeway stores. Items include pasta and sauce, canned vegetables, soup, and important protein items like peanut butter and canned tuna. Once collected, the food will be delivered to food banks for distribution to needy families. To purchase, shoppers can remove a flyer from the tear pads located display area in each store and take it up to the register. The bags are available for Safeway shoppers to purchase now through December 1.

This year, NBC Bay Area and Safeway are again inviting local chefs to participate in a recipe challenge by creating dishes using some of the food items provided in the donation bags. Recipe challenges will take place at various Safeway locations and will be broadcast live on NBC Bay Area.

“Safeway is honored to partner with NBC Bay Area and our local food banks on this community-wide effort,” said Tom Schwilke, President of Safeway Northern California. “Proudly serving Northern California since 1926, assisting people who need a helping hand during the holidays and throughout the year is an important part of our giving programs.”

Last year, the food drive collected more than 144,400 bags at Safeway Stores across the Bay Area, amounting to over 1,600,000 pounds of food for those in need.
