FAIRFIELD — John Muir Health is delivering much needed assistance to local families this holiday season with a $25,000 donation to the Food Bank of Contra Costa and Solano. This year's donation has been designated to support the Food Bank's Community Produce Program. The Community Produce Program distributes fresh produce twice a month to more than 50 sites in Contra Costa and Solano counties.

Since making its first holiday donation in 2008 at the suggestion of an employee, John Muir Health has contributed more than $200,000 to the Food Bank.
