KAISER PERMANENTE EMPLOYEES DONATE HUNDREDS OF TURKEYS FOR THANKSGIVING

VACAVILLE, Calif., November 29, 2019 -- Employees with Kaiser Permanente in the Napa Solano area are donating more than 300 turkeys to area organizations including the Food Bank of Contra Costa and Solano which will help provide more than 3,700 Thanksgiving meals to the area's hungry.

"At Kaiser Permanente, our mission is to provide high-quality, affordable health care services and to improve the health of our members and the communities we serve. I am thankful to our physicians and staff who have delivered on our mission by collecting turkeys that will provide a warm meal to hundreds of families in need this Thanksgiving," said Nor Jemjemian, senior vice president and area manager, Kaiser Permanente Napa Solano area. "I'm so proud of the way our team serves our community."

Kaiser Permanente employees organized and promoted the turkey drive. They collected turkeys and other food items from fellow employees at both Vacaville and Vallejo Medical Centers, as well as at our medical offices in Fairfield and Napa.

Turkeys donated in Napa were donated to the Community Action of Napa Valley organization.

The holiday boxes with the turkeys and other food items will be distributed through Food Bank partner agencies.
