Residents donate record food, money in food drive

Rossmoor residents donated a record amount of food and money during the annual holiday drive for the Food Bank of Contra Costa and Solano. The month-long effort, which started at the end of November, brought in 6,429 pounds of food and $20,096 in monetary contributions. "I'm tickled pink," said Eleanore McGrath who headed the drive, sponsored annually by the Interfaith Council of Rossmoor.
