

Job Title: Agency Relations Program Coordinator
Department: Programs
Reports To: Senior Agency Relations Manager
Classification: Regular, Full-time, Non-Exempt
Location: Concord, CA

Summary

The Agency Relations Program Coordinator directs the network of food pantries and all other agencies that receive food from the Food Bank. This position is fast paced with lots of multi-tasking and customer service needs. The ideal person for this role will be compliance driven and unafraid to enforce rules, but also professional, compassionate, and understanding of the missions and values of our member agencies.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities

- Monitor active member agencies, including Food Assistance Program sites every other year (or more often if required) and document each monitoring visit with a written report.
- Maintain up-to-date and complete files on member agencies and manage Agency component of Navision database.
- Certify food pantries, making sure that pantries keep regular hours, provide a nutritious food basket, and submit reports with service information each month to the Food Bank.
- Create a quarterly newsletter for partner agencies.
- Design and apply trainings to obtain compliance with Feeding America standards.
- Ability to coordinate annual Agency Summit event with partner agencies.
- Tabulate and maintain agency service statistics, shopper information, and mailing lists.
- Learn all facets of the Senior Food Program, Food for Children, and Food Assistance Program in order to back up other Program Coordinators.
- This position requires ability to work some nights and weekends (generally during Nov. and Dec., approx. 5-7 nights/weekends per year), outdoors, and in low income areas. Job duties are 70% office, 30% field work. Use of personal vehicle required with mileage reimbursed at the standard federal rate. Company pool cars are available.
- Other duties as assigned.

Qualifications

- Associate's degree and one to two years related experience and/or training. An equivalent combination of education and experience will be considered.
- Experience with social service and community organizations, including outreach highly desired.
- Bilingual, English/Spanish highly desirable.
- Demonstrated proficiency with MS Office. Must be competent working with Google docs. Familiarity with inventory software is a plus.
- Knowledge of project management principles including development and coordination of plans, communication, collaboration and time management.
- The ability to read and interpret documents such as safety rules, operating and maintenance instructions, and procedure manuals, the ability to write routine reports and correspondence.
- Ability to speak effectively and professionally before groups of customers, employees, and the general public demonstrating cultural sensitivity.

- Communicates accurately, honestly, supportively and in a timely manner with department and interdepartmental team members. Demonstrates strong planning, organizing, time management and interpersonal skills.
- Self-starter who is able to work with minimal supervision. Works effectively under pressure to meet established goals and objectives.
- Valid California Driver's license and insurance and ability to be insured under the Food Bank's auto insurance required.
- Occasionally lift and/or move up to 40 pounds.

COVID Requirements

As a condition of employment, FBCCS requires all employees to be fully vaccinated against COVID-19, unless approved for a reasonable accommodation based on disability, medical condition, or religious belief that prevents you from being vaccinated. If you are vaccinated, you are required to have received at least one COVID-19 vaccine prior to your first day of employment and to provide proof of full vaccination status within 30 days.

Additional Information

In instances of a federal, state or locally declared emergency, Food Bank is typically considered an essential service and emergency responder; all of its employees may be called in to perform regular or emergent duties.
