About the Food Bank of Contra Costa and Solano

Founded in 1975, The Food Bank of Contra Costa and Solano is a critical resource for residents in our local communities. Our mission is leading the fight to end hunger in partnership with our community and service of our neighbors in need. Through our partnership with Feeding America, we distribute nutritious food directly to clients as well as through a network of more than 245 partners and nonprofits — providing enough food for 2.7 million meals every month. We also strategically engage in advocacy work to raise awareness and mobilize support to end hunger, and are recognized as one of Feeding America's Hall of Fame honor roll members for excellence in advocacy.

During times of crisis, the Food Bank team serves as second responders by providing food for communities impacted by natural disasters and emergencies. As Feeding America's hub for disaster relief on the West Coast we've helped respond to disasters in 16 Northern California counties and beyond.

With 97 cents of every $1 donated going toward food distribution, the Food Bank is committed to financial transparency and consistently earns Charity Navigator's highest four-star rating. To learn more about The Food Bank of Contra Costa and Solano, visit www.foodbankccs.org.
