FOOD BANK of Contra Costa & Solano

Serving Contra Costa and Solano Counties since 1975.

Leading the fight to end hunger, in partnership with our community and in service of our neighbors in need.

Last updated: November 2026

2.8 million meals distributed every month and 68% of food distributed is fresh produce, protein, and dairy to help improve health outcomes, especially for the most vulnerable populations. The grocery recovery program rescued more than 11 million pounds of healthy food last year that would otherwise be discarded.

110,000+ volunteer hours

served to support the Food Bank last year and help neighbors experiencing food insecurity. 5,700 volunteers devoted more than 110,000 hours — the equivalent of more than 50 full-time employees!

Nearly 250 nonprofit partners are supported by the Food Bank, ensuring we make maximum impact in the areas we serve. These partner agencies include soup kitchens, pantries, child development centers, and more!

97¢ of every $1 donated goes directly to food programs. Thanks to the Food Bank's purchasing power, every $1 donated can provide two meals. The Food Bank has been awarded the highest 4-star rating from Charity Navigator, a third-party platform that reviews nonprofits for accountability, transparency, and financial health.

About the Food Bank of Contra Costa and Solano

Founded in 1975, The Food Bank of Contra Costa and Solano is a critical resource for residents in our local communities. Our mission is leading the fight to end hunger in partnership with our community and service of our neighbors in need. Through our partnership with Feeding America, we distribute nutritious food directly to clients as well as through a network of nearly 250 nonprofit partners and nonprofits — providing enough food for more than 2.8 million meals every month. We also strategically engage in advocacy work to raise awareness and mobilize support to end hunger, and are recognized as one of Feeding America's Hall of Fame honor roll members for excellence in advocacy.

During times of crisis, the Food Bank team serves as second responders by providing food for communities impacted by natural disasters and emergencies. As Feeding America's hub for disaster relief on the West Coast we've helped respond to disasters in 16 Northern California counties and beyond.

With 97 cents of every $1 donated going toward food distribution, the Food Bank is committed to financial transparency and consistently earns Charity Navigator's highest four-star rating. To learn more about the Food Bank of Contra Costa and Solano, visit foodbankccs.org.
